

Our 2007-2008 School Land Trust funds were earmarked for enhancing writing across the curriculum and improving scores on writing tests. Eleven faculty/staff members have taken part in professional development classes on writing for insight in all content areas, a colored printer (and toner) has been purchased for our writing lab, and a grammar enhancement program was purchased.